

Plan Reading

Overview

This course intends to provide participants with the skills and knowledge necessary to read and interpret plans and specifications as they are relevant to general construction operations.

Entry Requirements

Participants must:

- Have at least an intermediate level of numeracy, literacy and communication skills.

Delivery

This course is delivered and assessed over two (2) days using a combination of face-to-face classroom and practical activity sessions.

Units of Competency

There is one (1) unit of competency associated with this course:

- BCGCM2001B Read and interpret plans and specifications

Outcomes

It is expected that participants should be able to:

- Identify different types of plans and drawings and understand their purpose / use
- Recognise commonly used symbols and abbreviations
- Identify key features and specifications on a site plan
- Comprehend written job specifications
- Recognise document status and amendments

Upon successful completion of this course participants will receive a Statement of Attainment in partial completion of BCG20103 Certificate II in General Construction.

Assessment Requirements

Participants will be required to successfully complete a series of assessment tasks which may include a written exam and practical demonstration / observation.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) / Credit Transfer

Prospective participants may be eligible to receive RPL or credit transfer depending on whether they have any previous industry experience or hold existing qualifications. Applicants should speak with CSTC at the time of enrolment to discuss these options further.

How to Enrol

Interested applicants should download a copy of the New Student Application Form from our website and submit it with payment to their local CSTC office. Payment options are provided on the reverse side of the application form, and course prices listed on the Course Dates Brochure are subject to change without notice.

Course Dates & Fees

Dates and fees associated with this course are provided separately on the Course Dates Brochure specific to each training location. These brochures can be downloaded from our website.

Refund Policy

The Refund Policy confirms that refunds are provided (as appropriate) within an acceptable time frame. In all instances, a full refund of enrolment fees will be made to the payer if training is cancelled by CSTC for any reason. Please refer to CSTC's website for further information regarding refunds and cancellations.